Caroline, or Change

Book & Lyrics by Tony Kushner

Louisiana, 1963. Can the promises of the Civil Rights Movement reach as deep as the overheated basement domain of Caroline Thibodeaux, a maid who works for the well-meaning Gellmans and struggles to keep her bitterness in check? This thrilling, award-winning musical takes on race, faith, money, latkes, and change—powerful, terrifying, and loose. And the washing machine sings a mean Motown.
